

Paula Redford

1112 W. 73rd St., New York, NY 10023
212-555-5555
Predford@xyz.com

SUMMARY

ESL/TOEFL Instructor with proven ability to teach adults of all levels of proficiency with varied educational and business backgrounds. Experience includes teaching conversational and written English. Knowledge of multiple cultures through travel and continuing contacts with people throughout Europe, Asia, South America, and Africa.

EXPERIENCE

ESL Instructor – New York Language Institute, New York, NY 1992–Present

- Teach ESL to private students and business executives; customize lessons according to occupation and level of English proficiency.
- Prepare students for the TOEFL exam.

ESL Instructor – Rutgers University 1992
Language Institute for English (L.I.F.E.) summer program at The Juilliard School at Lincoln Center, New York, NY

- Taught specialized program for international musicians to improve English proficiency.

ESL and TOEFL Instructor – Pace University, New York, NY 1989–1991

- Taught ESL classes, from beginner to advanced levels, to American immigrants.

Previous experience includes positions as medical administrator at hospitals and for research programs, also tour guide and museum docent.

EDUCATION

B.A., magna cum laude, Columbia University, New York, NY

Graduate Studies:

New York University, teaching methodology and applied linguistics
New School for Social Research, language learning and teaching

License:

New York State Teacher's License #1234